IMAP advises Flintab, a leading supplier of innovative weighing systems in the Nordic region, on sale to Dacke Industri

IMAP is pleased to announce that Dacke Industri has signed an agreement to acquire Flintab, a supplier of scales and registration systems, advanced weighing solutions, and associated services in the Nordic market.

Flintab is headquartered in Jönköping, Sweden, employs around 75 people and has a turnover of approximately €13 million. The company helps customers streamline and maximize operations with innovative and customized solutions.

Dacke Industri, owned by Nordenstjernen, is an investment company that makes long-term investments in innovative technology companies. Dacke Industri provides industrial know-how and maintains an entrepreneurial environment in its portfolio companies. Today, the investment company has 17 subsidiaries, nearly 1,600 employees worldwide and a turnover of over €370 million.

As a long-time owner of innovative technology companies, the acquisition of Flintab aligns perfectly with Dacke Industri's continuous expansion strategy.

The team from IMAP Sweden, led by Jörgen Larsson and Per Demuth, advised Flintab throughout the entire sale process. Jörgen Larsson, Partner and CEO of IMAP Sweden, said, "We thank the owners of Flintab for placing their trust in us and for making this a great sale process. Flintab generated a lot of interest throughout the market and I am sure that Dacke Industri will be a great new owner of the company."
